

Jie Gu, ME Ph.D. student, Earns IEEE Reliability Scholarship

Jie Gu, a Ph.D. student in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Maryland, has been selected for the 2007 IEEE Reliability Scholarship in recognition of his activity in IEEE reliability society. Jie Gu is advised by Professor Michael Pecht. The focus of his research is prognostics and health management of electronics.

The competition for this scholarship was strong, and the fact to be chosen to receive a scholarship is a testimony to the outstanding scholastic achievements and demonstrated interest in IEEE and reliability-related professional activities. $2000 scholarship is awarded.
